By Capt. John Beard, who arrived here Yeſterday from Jamaica we have the following Account, viz.

THE Negroes being very troubleſome to the Inhabitants all over the Iſland, the Governor tho't proper to fit out a great Party, of which went a Number of Gentlemen Volunteers, ſo that they muſter'd 250 Shotſmen, beſides Negroes and a Company of Soldiers to a Place call'd Mentego-Bay, they being about Two Days and a half March from the rebellious Negroes. They ſet out on Friday Morning the 29th of February, and arrived at the Place on Sunday Morning and came upon them before they were aware of it, but as ſoon as their Lookouts diſcover'd them they took to their Ambuſh, and engag'd the Soldiers to go in the Front, who did with ſo much Reſolution that the firſt Shot they made wounded five and killed one, but the reſt which was commanded by Coll. Guttery advanced ſo faſt upon 'em that they were forc'd to quit their Ambuſh after loſing 8 or 9 Negroes, and a Woman and Child they took alive, this being Sunday in the Morning the firſt Day, and fought all Day. The Negroes got up their Precipice in the Rocks. Coll. Guttery was commanding his Men to make ſure of three Shots, when a Shot came and took his Cane out of his Hand; he drew his Sword and told them it was well done, let them fire as that, for the Negroes were ſo near as to talk to them. He burnt their Town which conſiſted of 200 Houſes, and the Captain's Houſe was 100 Feet long. The Colonel told them if they'd come to a Peace he would make a Peace with them, but they were afraid they would not be ſo good as their Word, till a Scotch Doctor laid down his Arms and went towards them, then one of the boldeſt went and chang'd Hats with him. After that Hoſtages were chang'd on both Sides and they came to an Agreement, which could not be finiſh'd till the Governor and Council met; the Governor came in great Haſte, having Horſes ready in three different Places, and rode it in a Day and a half although it is reckon'd 120 Miles and bad Roads, ſo ready the Governor was to do any Thing for the good of the Country. The Governor has promis'd the Party-Men a Hundred Piſtoles out of his own Pocket, and likewiſe to ſee they are well Rewarded by the Country. There are ſome ſmall Companies that will not come in, but Capt. Cudgoe who is the greateſt Captain and the greateſt Strength, has promis'd to bring them or their Heads. There are two Captains more and two Companies which came in with Captain Cudgeo. Their Town is call'd by the Name of Trelawney Town, after the Name of the Governor.
